I'm trying to set up different LAMP-stack servers for development and production. I have a server for development with a webroot /var/www/project, a MySQL database server /var/lib/mysql, a php.ini, and of course a virtualhost for the project directory. When I try to run the command `sudo a2dissite project` I get the error "a2dissite command not found". I also installed apache2 and mysql

using yum. When I run `sudo a2enmod php5` I get this error: Not Found The requested URL /index.php/project was not found on this server. Apache/2.2.22 (Ubuntu) Server
