California Wildcats Test Of Strength V 277. . Calendar of Champions of Champions.php RUNNING WINS. In the 2016 season, the Cats ran 644 times and won 304, or 48.2 percent. The NCAA automatic qualifier, that number is 60.2 percent. Nine of the Cats ten losses were in the 400 to 600 meters, and the only time they lost when they didn't was a 750-meter race. The running team consists of three freshmen, four sophomores and one junior. They have dominated both distance and sprint races in conference and at the National level. . Three Cats have won the conference individual crown in their careers: senior All-American and All-Centennial Conference selection Paris Moher, senior sprint champion and UC Riverside record holder Sarah Leach (2:24.28) and junior Pauline Allen (2:24.38). The 2014 champion Leach will be out for the season after tearing the anterior cruciate ligament in her left knee in a meet at Utah State. She's the fifth in the program's history to be sidelined by an injury. After Moher (No. 1) and Allen (No. 2) added to their conference crowns in 2015, the Cats not only won their first team title, they also took the USCAAA team championship. Six of the current team were members of the 2013 squad that won the conference team title, and eight of the current team were members of the 2013 squad that took third at nationals. The four sophomores are not ready to lead a team this fall, however, their contributions to the program were consistent. They earned top-five times in the all-important 800 meters (2:33.40) at the third place meet in Boise in early May, led the Cats to the conference team title and, as mentioned, took third at nationals. junior Pauline Allen is the team leader in the 800 meters. The 4-x800-meter relay team placed first and second at the conference meet. junior Emily Morris is the top time-clocker in the 600 meters, and the team is second at the conference meet. She placed third at nationals. junior Bailey Saldana was a force in the 500 meters and was second at the conference meet. The Cats are riding the momentum of a preseason poll that ranked them ninth in the country in 2d92ce491b
