One of the best known historical narratives in the Book of Judges is the account of the destruction of the Canaanite cities (Judges 1). Joshua's battle narratives also present an overarching historical narrative. The divinely-commissioned history (1:1-8:35) of the conquest of Canaan gives the reader an overall picture of the ancient world. There are many archaeological sites that testify to the ancient world. I will focus here on three of the most famous and important. Jericho The story of the Israelite conquest of Canaan begins in the Jericho region (1:1-3). Joshua 3 tells the story of the Israelite victory at Jericho. The Israelite army surrounded Jericho and set up camp. The priests ritually cleansed the camp and celebrated with a Passover meal (Joshua 2). The story ends with the Israelites declaring their victory over the Canaanites (3:10). The story begins with a summary of the Israelite campaign against the Canaanites and ends with the
